

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This message will be very brief, because I am enclosing a much longer President's Annual Report for the 2019-2020 year, just concluded June 30. The NMCB Board met via Zoom on August 10 to begin to plan for the coming year. It looks like we will not be having any sort of large gathering, probably for months to come. We will continue to meet periodically via Zoom.

Our Branch's Annual Meeting in June was well attended, and I think most of us are more comfortable now with this medium. (If only we can keep power!) We are planning to have a program on voting sometime in September with the League of Women Voters – more details to come. Everyone be safe and look out for each other.

Pat Miller, President

Membership Matters

Membership is Everyone's Responsibility

Please welcome new member:

Cristina Medlin

She is former E-student who graduated from Monmouth University with a BA in History and Education.

Thanks to all who have renewed their memberships in a timely manner. Some of you found using PayPal simplified the process.

Many thanks to those who included a donation with their dues payment. A total of over $2,000 was received.

This year a directory booklet will not be printed. We will provide a spreadsheet file via email instead. It will be formatted so that it can be printed for those who prefer a paper copy. If anyone is not comfortable with this process and would like to receive a printout by mail, please email Deb Blood and she will send one.

Any corrections in your contact information should be emailed to membership co-chairs.

Deb Blood

Mary Lea Burden

Membership Co-directors

In Memory of Helen Rudy, who died on June 14, 2020

Helen was a lifetime member of the AAUW and, through the years, was active with many book sale fundraisers. Helen taught in the Middletown Township School District for twenty-two years, retiring July 1, 2000. She was also a presenter at many workshops for teachers about children's literature. She presented a workshop, "Whole Language Approach to Teaching Reading", at several Early Childhood Conferences. She also served as the President of the Monmouth County Association of Kindergarten Educators. Helen was always willing to share her knowledge and love of teaching with others in the field.

Study, Action, Interest Groups

Study Group News

Study group in-person meetings have been suspended until further notice.

Art History

We have been meeting via ZOOM. We recently had a ZOOM planning meeting for the coming year. We also asked members to join a recent virtual Artist-in-Residence talk at Monmouth Museum. We will have a ZOOM chat session to discuss the talk. For September we are asking members to virtually visit a museum of choice to tell us about at our September meeting. We made our plans based on having virtual meetings for the foreseeable future, but we are looking forward to the time we can actually visit galleries, museums and places of interest again. For details or anyone interested in joining, please contact Susan or Barbara.

Chairs: Susan Buccellato

French Conversation

Contact the chair for more information.

Chair: Jeannine Maloney

Our group enables women with a good knowledge of the French language to maintain their fluency through some language structure reviews and conversation with other members. (The group is made up of native-born speakers, those educated in France, French majors in an American university and those who have studied the language for several years.) Grammatical notes and practice sheets are e-mailed to the participants before each meeting and one half hour of the two hours is spent reviewing a grammatical point and listening to the paragraphs written by the participants.

Participants eat together and share their stories in French.

L'hôtesse sert un déjeuner à la française, pour mieux apprécier la vie culturelle du pays.

New members are always welcome.

German Conversation

On hiatus.

Chair: Aline Ashkin

We read auf deutsch and translate. Our goal is to improve our German language skills in reading and conversation. Our group is a mixture of English-speaking members with a background of college-level German and members who are native German speakers. New members are always welcome.

Insights

This non-fiction book group normally meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at members' homes. Because of the pandemic, we plan to hold an October Zoom or Google Meeting event. Members are encouraged to share their recommendations for this year's books to chair, Kathy Olsen, prior to October 1.

An email list of recommendations will be sent in early October, prior to the meeting,

New members are always welcome and can contact Kathy for information. Our spring selections, which we have yet to discuss, were The Feather Thief by Johnson and Have Dog Will Travel by Kuuisto and Sanders. Happy reading.

Literature

On hiatus.

Please contact the chair for more information.

Chair: Regina Sieben

We select literary fiction or an occasional memoir to read during the year. A different member acts as leader each month and presents background and critical appraisal of the month's selection.

Russian Short Stories

Contact Study Group Chair: Stephanie Rose

Russia is a continental power of vast proportions, with distinctive traditions, character, national myths and forms of political organization. After a brief survey of Russian geography and culture, this study group will deal with nine short stories, and conclude by examining popular themes within Russian literature.

Presentations are in English. All materials for the study group are available through <https://www.gutenberg.org/>.

Writing

Please contact chair for meeting information.

Chair: Patricia Chapman

Members of this group are resolute in their belief in the power of the written word to inform, delight, amuse and transform the reader. With this aim, members present their writings from various genres - poetry, fiction, essays, memoir, non-fiction, opinion. The meetings begin with a timed journal exercise. After sharing their responses, members take time out to enjoy light refreshments and conversation.

Connie Goddard and Deb Blood spearheaded our annual Book Awards program. This award honors the graduating senior girl who has achieved the highest math scores for her school. The book being awarded this year was Shall Not Be Denied. For more on the book and the project see the President's Annual Report (p.10). We received a thank you note from one of the honorees:

American Assoc. of University Women
Ms. Connie Goddard
PO Box 398
Red Bank, NJ 07701

Ms. Goddard,
I would like to thank you for honoring me with the American Association of University Women Award. I greatly appreciate being chosen to receive such a special gift. I look forward to reading the book that has been selected and cannot wait to learn more about the history that has given me all the rights I have today. Thank you again!

Best,
Katherine Koestler

We have a current opening on the board for Recording Secretary. Responsibilities include taking minutes at board and branch meetings, sending those minutes to the board, and reporting to members at branch meetings. The position can be shared by more than one member. Minutes are written to a minimum: motions made, results of motions, items for further action. For more information, please contact Pat Miller, President.

BOOK SALE BOOK SALE

We plan to reopen on Saturday, October 10 from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Volunteers are needed to sort books on Thursday mornings, our donation drop off day, and for Saturday sales. Sales shifts run from 9:00-11:00 a.m. and from 11:00 until 1 p.m. Please email Annabelle Boehm if you can help.

Masks and social distancing rules will be required.

Presidents' Annual Report
2019-2020

Pat Miller

This has been the most unusual year in my memory, at least the 2020 portion of it, which was all virtual after the March 1 "Suffragists Speak" program. We successfully continued to pursue the branch goals of greater visibility in the community and working in coalition with other groups with similar values. This played out especially in our membership and fundraising efforts and in branch programs. Here are some highlights:

- Pat (representing AAUW) was invited and attended a small group gathering to meet some of Lunch Break's executive staff, including Executive Director Gwendolyn Love, with a tour of the facility afterwards.
- NMCB joined with Monmouth County Women in Unity Coalition to sponsor a webinar "Women Coming Together in Unity to Heal the Whole." Mary Gatta was a panelist.
- Heather Balczarek was honored as Member of the Year for 2019.
- The 14th Annual Running & Winning workshop was planned for April but was canceled. A joint effort of NMCB, League of Women Voters, Junior League of Monmouth County, and Red Bank Hadassah, the workshop enables young women from area high schools to interact with and be mentored by local women politicians and public office holders. Marian Wattenbarger was a co-chair of the steering committee.

- Our March program "SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL IN BLACK AND WHITE" was a joint effort with Eastern Branch of Monmouth County Library, League of Women Voters (LWV), and the T. Thomas Fortune Cultural Center. It celebrated the centennial of the 19th Amendment with a distinctive program that told, via role playing, the suffrage story through the words of five women (and one man) who made it happen, Members Lorraine Stone, Gilda Rogers, Connie Goddard and Marian Wattenbarger were among the actors.
- We supported the subsequently canceled Tech Trek, AAUW-NJ's STEM summer camp for rising eighth grade girls at Stockton University. Annette Benanti and Karen Topham interviewed and recommended candidates from our area, several of whom were selected for the program. Those candidates will be invited to next year's camp. The Branch sent a donation to be used when the camp is held next summer.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We thank all board members and appointees for their faithful attendance and support at board, branch, and committee meetings and fundraisers.

The following includes excerpts from the reports of Directors:

MEMBERSHIP: Mary Lea Burden and Barbara Withers, Co-Directors

Membership as of June 30, 2020, stood at 153 (including 9 Life, 7 Honorary Life, 7 Dual, 4 College/University) and 5 Guest members; plus 16 e-student members. We gained 15 new members this year.

We introduced the option of renewing membership on our website using PayPal this year. Several members took advantage of using their credit cards.

Transitions: Several members moved out of the area: Liz Feuer, Robin Kucharczyk, Lillian Livingston.

Deaths: Barbara Rutledge-Sicherman, Barbara Williamson, Lourdes Zeik.

“Give a Grad a Gift” The following e-students were gifted a one-year national membership and membership in NJ State and our Branch for those living in New Jersey: Samantha Fitzgerald (Brookdale, AA History). She is attending Rutgers University. Jenna Horowitz (Brookdale, AS Biology). She is attending Stockton University [?]. Megan Fleitz (Monmouth U., BA). She lives in Peekskill, NY.

Dominique Connell (Monmouth U., BA); Melissa Culmone (Monmouth U., BA).

Winter Get Together: Mary Lea Burden hosted a Shrewsbury/ Red Bank

gathering in January. One or two other members indicated interest in hosting a neighborhood gathering of members but were not able to schedule an event before the stay-at-home order.

PROGRAM

For the first time this year, programs were planned by a committee with no Program Directors. The following programs were planned for the year: SEASON KICKOFF FRIEND/FUNDRAISER, September 22, “HOW EMPOWERING WOMEN CAN HELP STOP GLOBAL WARMING”, Unitarian Universalist Congregation, Lincroft

In observance of Global Climate Strike Week and in support of AAUW’s mission to advance equity for women and girls, we presented this 14-minute online TED talk by writer and environmentalist Katharine Wilkinson. We then discussed the issues raised and how they relate to our AAUW mission.

October 21 “CLEAN ENERGY: CLEAN AIR, CLEAN WATER & OUR LEGACY OF A LIVABLE WORLD”, Eatontown Community Center

Over 80 Environmental Groups in NJ have banded together to fight the more than a dozen proposed new fossil fuel projects — pipelines and power plants. Scientists tell us we have only 10 years left to cut emissions by half globally, if we are to leave a livable world for future generations that is much brighter for humanity and all life on earth. Speakers: Amy Goldsmith, Clean Water Action; Taylor McFarland, Sierra Club; Peter Blair,

Clean Ocean Action; Pat Miller,
Moderator

November 18 “AAUW-NMCB’s OWN SCHOLARSHIP & EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM AWARDEES”, Eatontown Community Center

NMCB’s major philanthropic activity is providing scholarships and educational programs for local women and girls. We showcased these awards and featured some of the 2018–2019 awardees. These include High School Book Awards for the 22 public high schools in our area; AAUW’s National Conference for Collegiate Women Student Leaders; Tech Trek; and academic scholarships at each of our local colleges and universities.

December 9 “CIMABUE AND GIOTTO: THE DAWN OF RENAISSANCE PAINTING”, Eatontown Community Center

Our annual holiday celebration featured a huge dessert buffet, plus slides and commentary from our resident art historian Mary Anne Anderl. Cimabue and Giotto were the first great painters of the Italian Proto-Renaissance to break from medieval style. This talk emphasized how the works of these two artists form a bridge from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance.

March 1 “SUFFRAGE CENTENNIAL IN BLACK AND WHITE”, Eastern Branch of Monmouth County Library, Shrewsbury Monmouth County Branches of AAUW and League of Women Voters (LWV), with T. Thomas Fortune, celebrated the centennial of the 19th Amendment with a distinctive program that tells, via role playing, the suffrage story through the words of five women (and one man) who made it happen – Susan B. Anthony, Frederick Douglass, Carrie Chapman Catt, Alice Paul, Ida B. Wells, and Fanny Lou Hamer.

The final two programs below were cancelled after the stay-at-home order went into effect. We will try to reschedule them for the spring of 2021.

CENTRAL DISTRICT INTERBRANCH MEETING, March 26 “NARROWING THE WAGE GAP”, Brookdale Community College, Lincroft

Our panel, moderated by Dr. Mary Gatta, was to include Dr. Nicola Blake, CUNY professor; Joann Downey, attorney and NJ State Assemblywoman; Janet Lee, LCSW, of 180 Turning Lives Around; Retha Onitiri, MS, of the NJ Institute for Social Justice; and Amy Quinn, attorney and deputy mayor of Asbury Park. They were to present the facts about the gap, its impact, possible solutions, and AAUW’s efforts to narrow it.

April 30, 2020, 7th ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP LUNCHEON, Beacon Hill Country Club, Atlantic Highlands

Our speaker was to be Francine Garson, author of Follow the Leader and Things. We were to honor our 2020-2021 Women of Achievement, Gwendolyn Love and Anna Diaz-White, and honor the memory of Barbara Williamson.

DEVELOPMENT: Mary Anne Anderl and Arlene Thoma, Co-Directors, Lauren Nicosia, Luncheon Chair

BOOK SALE: Our book sale opened for the year on September 7, 2019 with a good gross net of $643, but a poor month's revenue of $1,000 less than September earnings in 2018 and 2017. October's total fell short of any October total in the past four years. The book sale committee noticed falling revenues and took action to increase our advertising efforts.

Committee member Irene Gibson created posters to be placed wherever branch members and book sale clients could put them. Annabelle Boehm not only schedules our volunteers, but she has also been posting book sale days on social media. She has asked other branch members to post book sale news on their township sites. Barbara Withers has devised a sorting system in the storeroom that gets books on the shelves more quickly or else sent to recycling.

By the end of December, we had not brought in enough to cover the rent for July-December 2019. We asked the Old First Church if they could reduce our rent, and they graciously lowered our rent by $200 per month. They presented us with a new lease covering the months up to and including December 2020, which all members at a special book sale meeting voted to accept.

In January and February of 2020, we realized greater profits. February's revenue topped any February in the past five years. We feel that the increased advertising and the drop in rent have really helped our profits. Our Year-To-Date income has allowed us to cover the rent for the year from July to February and earn $1,300 for scholarships and branch awards.

We had hoped to bring in significantly increased revenue for the rest of this year (through June 30), until the stay-at-home order forced us to close. There is much for the committee to discuss about going forward, when we do not know when the Old First Church will be allowed to reopen or how many customers we will allow in our saleroom at once. We will try to take care of management this year by asking a different pair of members to take director status each month at least through December 2020.

SCHOLARSHIP LUNCHEON: After its cancellation in 2020, our Annual Scholarship Luncheon will be held on Thursday, April 29, 2021. The event will be held at the scenic Beacon Hill Country Club commencing at Noon. The author Francine Garson will be our guest speaker. Francine will be selling her two books, Things, and Follow the Leader during the luncheon. Our Woman of Achievement awards will be given in 2021 to the two women chosen this year: Anna Diaz-White of 180 Turning Lives Around, and Gwendolyn Love of Lunch Break. Sadly, we will be honoring the memory of our beloved Barbara Williamson. Lastly, a heartfelt thank you to all of you who bought tickets and generously converted the purchase into a donation to the Scholarship Fund, in lieu of receiving a refund. We look forward to seeing everyone at the 2021 luncheon and enjoying a few hours of delicious food, interesting speakers, fun fundraising raffles and much needed laughter and conversation with new and old friends!

COMMUNICATIONS:

NetWorks: The newsletter is published monthly except for January and July – August. The June issue of NetWorks was number 9 for the 2019-2020 year.

Thank you to all who have submitted articles and photos over the past year. It is through your diligence that our newsletter receives kudos from readers each month.

Special thanks to Mary Lea Burden for being our liaison with the printer; Betsy Wattle for sending paper copies to some of our members; Heather Balczarek for posting the public issue on the NMCB website; Barbara Withers for troubleshooting when members have not received their electronic issues. Karen Topham will continue as editor for the upcoming year.

Website: Heather Balczarek continues as webmaster. She made some changes to the site this year to incorporate pictures and attempt to make it more inviting. We continue accepting PayPal credit card payments for the Luncheon and dues via the web, thanks to Heather and Alice MacPhee.

EDUCATION OUTREACH:

Director Connie Goddard wrote: It has been an educational year, or surely an educational spring. We are all learning how we can adapt, what we can do with technology, and what plans need to be changed. Few of us had ever heard of COVID-19 as 2020 got underway; now, that molecule representing its structure has become a more potent symbol than a country schoolhouse.

To the good, our education programs got off to a fine start with a branch meeting in November that brought attention to our branch's major philanthropic activity -- providing scholarships and educational programs for local women. Speakers included coordinators for each of these programs and appearances by two 2019 winners. One of these programs is Tech Trek, a statewide, week-long summer camp for middle school girls interested in STEM-related careers. Coordinated for the branch by Annette Benanti with help from Karen Topham, the program got underway in March – they received 10 nominations from local schools, interviewed the nominees and their parents, then were pleased when half of the girls they recommended were selected to participate. But then, in mid-April, this year's program was cancelled. The girls will, however, be able to participate in the program next year; AAUW NJ plans to offer it again in 2021 and will welcome girls selected for this year's program as well.

Our branch also participates in AAUW's National Conference for College Women Student Leaders. Known by its acronym NCCWSL, the program sends students selected by faculty at local colleges and universities to a three-day program in Maryland. Long-time branch coordinator Carol Walther resigned this winter, and she was succeeded by Michelle Sklar Stein. But just as the selection process began, this program was also cancelled for the year. Plans for next year are uncertain.

More successful this spring were the three scholarships endowed by past members of our branch, Louise Marsen, Audrie LaTowsky, and Esther Hymer. Providing $1,250 to $2,000, the first two are awarded to students at Brookdale Community College; the third to a student at Monmouth University. Awardees will be selected over the summer and their names announced then. Michelle Sklar Stein coordinated this program as well.

Though local high schools have not held classes on campus since mid-March, our annual Book Awards program is underway. This award honors the graduating senior girl who has achieved the highest math scores for her school. The book being awarded this year is Shall Not Be Denied, a lively and well-illustrated compilation of stories about the long struggle to extend the franchise to American women; it's based on an exhibit mounted by the Library of Congress in honor of the 19th Amendment Centennial, which is being celebrated this year. Guidance counselors and others at the 22 public high schools in northern Monmouth select winners, who are usually honored at an award ceremony held in conjunction with graduation. This year, these events are being handled as virtual ceremonies, a testament to how well schools have adapted to circumstance. The program is coordinated by Connie Goddard, with welcome assistance from Deb Blood. This year, schools have asked us to mail the books directly to students – and many have asked us for a videoed message to graduating seniors. It may not be the ceremony they had anticipated, but it will be one they remember. Thanks to all AAUW-NMCB members who have contributed generously to our education programs.

STUDY GROUPS:

Marie Gambuzza, Director, reported that currently there are seven Study Groups in AAUW-NMCB. Generally, they meet Sept – May.

1. The Art History Group listed 22 members in its roster. They meet to study and discuss global art of all periods and genres through member presentations and visits to museums, galleries, and outdoor art exhibitions. Meeting schedule varies according to the event.
2. French Conversation Group roster lists 9 members, some of whom are native born speakers, some educated in France, French majors in an American university and those who are students of the language. They meet twice a month to maintain fluency through conversation, language structure and grammatical reviews which are emailed to each participant prior to a luncheon meeting at a member's home which is conducted entirely in French

3. The German Study Group consists of 8 members and meets monthly at the Red Bank Public Library. Their goal is to improve German language skills in reading and conversation. The group is a blend of English-speaking members with a background of college level German and members who are native speakers.

4. Insights, a nonfiction book club lists 21 members. They hold monthly evening meetings in members' homes, focusing on current issues, with special attention to topics affecting women books written by women.

5. Literature Group consists of approximately 12 women. They select literary fiction or an occasional memoir to read during the year. A different member acts as leader each month and presents background and critical appraisal of the selection. Refreshments follow.

6. Writing Group meets monthly with members presenting their writings from various genres. They are resolute in their belief in the power of the written word to inform, delight, amuse and transform the reader. There is a timed journal exercise based on a member provided prompt. Refreshments and conversation follow.

7. Russian Short Stories Study Group, initiated this year with 7 members, aims to develop an understanding of Russian traditions, character, national myths and political organization through studying works of 19th & 20th century authors. It meets monthly at Eastern Branch MC Library.

Visitation to each group was hindered by the pandemic and simultaneous scheduling. Groups are run by dedicated volunteers and attended faithfully by members thankful to have this continuing educational and social opportunity. All groups support AAUW ideals and goals.

PUBLIC POLICY: Arlene Newman, Director

Following is an outline of AAUW's 2020 Gender Policy Agenda. More information on AAUW's policy issues can be found on the AAUW National website, <https://www.aauw.org/resources/policy/aauws-2020-gender-policy-agenda/>.

Economic Security

1. Ensure Equal Pay for Equal Work.
2. Implement Paid Leave and Paid Sick Days.
3. Stop Harassment in the Workplace.
4. Raise the Minimum Wage and Eliminate the Tipped Minimum Wage.
5. Close the Retirement Gap.
6. Protect Pregnant Workers.

Education

1. Defend and Strengthen Title IX.
2. Reduce Student Debt.
3. Expand Opportunities for Women and Girls in STEM.

Foundational Rights

1. Expand and Protect the Right to Vote.
2. Ensure Access to High-Quality Healthcare.
3. Ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

As you can see, we as women and girls have a lot of issues keeping us from our mission of gender equity for all. In this election year, it is especially critical that we expand and protect the right to vote and elect leaders who are with us in the fight for equity. All these issues impact women and girls in an unequal way, and in the Covid-19 present, the effects are especially severe. It is incumbent on us all to fight this fight for a better world for all our children and grandchildren of the future.

Finally, I would like to thank all our members for making this year so effective. It is through your efforts that we have been able to meet our mission and purpose. We could not begin to name each of you who has played an important role in our work this year. We applaud you and your commitment to advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy. Thank you!

UPCOMING PROGRAM

The League of Women Voters is planning to create a new video about the vote this fall. We are hoping to be able to share this with our members in September and to schedule a Zoom meeting to discuss the video and its impact. Stay tuned . . .

Finally, a poem celebrating a New Jersey Suffragist:

Alice Paul

by Katharine Rolston Fisher - 1871-1949

I watched a river of women,
Rippling purple, white and golden,
Stream toward the National Capitol.

Along its border,
Like a purple flower floating,
Moved a young woman, worn, wraithlike.
All eyes alight, keenly observing the marchers.
Out there on the curb, she looked so little, so lonely,
Few appeared even to see her;
No one saluted her.

Yet commander was she of the column,
its leader;
She was the spring whence arose that irresistible river of women
Streaming steadily towards the National Capitol.
